NAOMI REICE BUCHWALD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

This case is brought under the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") and state law and alleges that the Defendants Darden Restaurants, Inc., GMRI, Inc., Capital Grille Holdings, Inc. d/b/a The Capital Grille, and Rare Hospitality International, Inc. ("Capital Grille") failed to pay minimum wages and overtime compensation to its servers and bartenders.

You are receiving this Court Order because you have filed a Consent to Become a Party Under the FLSA (i.e., the "Plaintiff Consent Form") and have therefore elected to opt into this litigation. By opting in to this litigation, you agreed to designate the named plaintiff to make decisions on your behalf concerning all matters pertaining to this lawsuit.

Counsel for the parties have selected you to appear for a deposition. A deposition is an opportunity, on the record and under oath, for the lawyers for both the plaintiffs and the defendants to ask you questions about your experience as an employee at The Capital Grille in connection with the issues in this lawsuit.

If you wish to continue as a plaintiff in this lawsuit, you must contact the plaintiffs' counsel by March 2, 2015 to schedule your deposition. If you fail to contact plaintiffs' counsel, your claims may be dismissed, which means you may not be entitled to a share in any judgment or settlement that is favorable to the plaintiffs. Further, if such dismissal is with prejudice, you may be prevented from pursuing these claims against defendants at a later date.

You should contact one of the plaintiffs' counsel listed below by March 2, 2015.
